USOEC Greco-Roman team wins six medals at Kolbatn Cup in Norway

OSLO, Norway – The Greco-Roman team from the U.S. Olympic Education Center at Northern Michigan Univ. entered the Kolbatn Cup, a challenging age-group international event held Oct. 29-30.

The team won six medals, competing in two different divisions, the Junior division and the 18 and Under division. Athletes from a number of competitive European nations were entered in each weight class.

"Overall, we had a great tournament with a lot of competitive wrestling," said USOEC Assistant Greco-Roman Coach Willie Madison. "Even with the awesome results, we have a lot of room for improvement. This is a perfect tournament for the guys to gauge themselves against some very tough European wrestlers in their age division."

In the Junior division, Jacob Mitchell (Portland, Ore.) won a gold medal at 120 kg/264.5 lbs. He won all three bouts in a four-athlete round-robin. A key victory came over his teammate Scott Helton (Elmhurst, Ill.), who finished with a 2-1 record and captured the silver medal.

Joining Helton as a silver medalist in the Junior division was Mark Stenberg (Lockport, Ill.) at 84 kg/185 lbs., who was defeated by Rasmus Tjorstad of Norway in the gold-medal finals. Stenberg won two matches in his pool to qualify for the finals.

Mitchell is a sophomore studying zoology, Helton is a sophomore studying physical education and coaching, and Stenberg is a sophomore studying industrial technology.

The USOEC was named best club in the Junior division.

Drexel coach Jack Childs to retire at the end of the 2010-11 season

Drexel wrestling head coach Jack Childs, the active leader in Division I coaching victories, has announced the 2010-11 season will be his last. Childs is in his 35th season as the Drexel Wrestling Head Coach. He has 414 Division I victories and has amassed 505 wins at all levels of NCAA competition during his time at Stevens Tech and Drexel.

At Drexel, Childs has post an impressive record of 414-254-0. Last season, Childs recorded his landmark 500th career collegiate coaching victory as he led the Dragons to a win over conference foe George Mason. On April 22, 2006, Childs was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in Stillwater, Okla. as a Lifetime Achievement Award recipient. His contributions to the sport were also recognized when he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Wrestling Hall of Fame. Most recently, Childs was inducted to the Stevens Tech Athletic Hall of Fame in October of 2008.

Childs will have his final home season-opener on Nov. 6 against Campbell. The 2:00 p.m. match is also Alumni and Family Day at the Daskalakis Athletic Center as all Drexel alumni and family are encouraged to attend. The coaching legend will make his final appearance at the DAC on Feb. 20 when the Dragons will host Rutgers at 1:00 p.m. Childs' final coaching action will take place at Philadelphia's Wells Fargo Center where the 2010-11 NCAA Wrestling Championships will be held starting March 17. Drexel Athletics will also have an event at the conclusion of the season celebrating Coach Childs' legacy at the University. Details of the event will be coming in the next few months.

Government of Canada Supports Hargobind International Wrestling Championships

Wrestling Canada will host the Hargobind International Wrestling Championships thanks in part to funding provided by the Government of Canada. The Honourable Gary Lunn, Minister of State (Sport), today confirmed the contribution to the Championships, which will be held in Burnaby and Surrey, British Columbia, on November 5 and 6, 2010.

"The Government of Canada is pleased to support this international competition, showcasing some of Canada's best male and female wrestlers," said Minister of State Lunn. "Our athletes dedicate so much of their lives as they strive for excellence. I wish all our wrestlers the best of success in their quest for the podium, as they continue to represent Canada with pride."

The Hargobind Wrestling Club and Burnaby Mountain Wrestling Club are working together to be host the Hargobind International Wrestling Championships. Over the past 30 years this competition has been known as the Clansman International and has been held at Simon Fraser University.

The Government of Canada believes that participation in sport is part of a healthy lifestyle and contributes to a healthy society. Hosting international sport events gives Canada the opportunity to showcase our country to athletes and spectators from all over the world and brings significant sport, economic, and social benefits to Canadians and their communities.

The Government of Canada is the single largest contributor to sport in Canada and supports participation and excellence from the playground to the podium. A contribution of $30,000 was provided to Wrestling Canada through Sport Canada's Hosting Program.

Ian Paddock named Big Ten Wrestler of the Week

By Bob Healy

Big Ten Conference

Ian Paddock, Ohio State
So. – 133 – Warsaw, N.Y. – Warsaw

Ian Paddock earns the first Big Ten weekly honor of the 2010-11 season after taking the 133-pound title at the Buffalo Open last weekend. Paddock went 4-0 at the tournament, outscoring his opponents by a 35-6 margin en route to the title. The 12th-ranked sophomore defeated Bloomsburg's Jeremiah Biddle by a 17-2 technical fall in the opening round, following with a 2-0 overtime decision over Edinboro's Matthew Hasbrouck. He then took a 10-4 decision against Edinboro's Mitchell Port to advance to the finals, where he defeated 14th-ranked Kevin Smith of Buffalo, 6-0, to earn the title.

Va. Tech's Devin Carter named ACC Wrestler of the Week

By Steve Phillips

Atlantic Coast Conference

Virginia Tech 133-pound true freshman Devin Carter has been named the first Atlantic Coast Conference Wrestler of the Week of the 2010-11 season after winning the first six matches of his collegiate career, including a major decision over the nation's No. 8-ranked wrestler in his weight class.

Carter, a native of Christiansburg, Va., opened with a 15-0 technical fall over Iowa State's Ben Cash in the Hokies narrow 17-16 loss to No. 25 Iowa State in last Friday's dual meet. Carter then claimed the 133-pound title in Sunday's Hokie Open at Salem, Va., with an impressive sweep of his five matches. Carter's victories included wins over ACC opponents Pat Owens (10-5) and Mike Rappo of North Carolina (injury default), and a pin of Old Dominion's Justin LaValle in 2:32.

Carter capped his tournament showing with a dominating major decision over Old Dominion's eighth-ranked Kyle Hutter in the title match.

All-Star Update: Flores, Kissel named as replacements for Classic

Injuries have forced two wrestlers out of the 45th annual NWCA All-Star Classic presented by the Marines.

Boise State's Kirk Smith, the nation's top-ranked wrestler in the nation at 184 pounds, has pulled out of the event, citing an injury. Smith was set to face second-ranked Joe LeBlanc of Wyoming.

Instead, LeBlanc will now face Purdue's A.J. Kissel. The Boilermaker junior is ranked fifth by Amateur Wrestling News, sixth by InterMat and 15th by W.I.N. Magazine. The Wisconsin native redshirted last season and finished in the Round of 12 as a sophomore in 2009.

Kissel went 27-8 as a sophomore. He has never faced Joe LeBlanc in college competition.

The Smith injury will give Boise State two wrestlers in the event – Andrew Hochstrasser at 133 and Adam Hall at 157.

Oddly enough, the other replacement will drop Oklahoma State from three wrestlers in the event to two.

Alan Gelogaev of Oklahoma State was tabbed to wrestle Central Michigan's Jarod Trice at heavyweight, but Gelogaev pulled out due to an injury sustained wrestling Joe Bach of Oklahoma in the finals of the Oklahoma City Open.

Gelogaev will be replaced by a wrestler many California wrestling fans should know well – Clovis native Ryan Flores of American University.

Flores took last year off from competition and trained at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. He was an EIWA champion at heavyweight for Columbia and during the offseason, transferred to wrestle for Mark Cody at American.

While at Columbia, Flores went 31-5 and was the 10th-seed at the 2009 NCAA Division I Championships.

The 45th Annual NWCA All-Star Classic Presented by The Marines will be held at the Selland Arena in Fresno, California on Sunday, November 21, 2010. The doors open at 2:00 p.m. The All-Star Classic follows a weekend of fundraising events. For more information about the tournament, purchasing tickets and the fundraising events, visit the www.nwcaonline.com's event page.

UPDATE: USA vs. Russia dual pairings set for Troy, N.Y. on Saturday, Nov. 27

Muzaffar Abdurakhmanov, third in the NCAAs for American and now an assistant coach at Harvard, will compete at 74 kg for Russia against Nick Marable of the USA

USA Wrestling has announced the final pairings for the USA vs. Russia dual meet in Troy, N.Y., on Saturday, Nov. 27.

The dual will be held at Hudson Valley Community College at 1:00 p.m., at halftime of the Journeymen/ASICS Northeast Duals.

The Russian lineup will differ from the one which competed on Nov. 19 in Hempstead, N.Y. Three of the Russian wrestlers will drop down to their regular weight classes to compete in Troy, after wrestling up a division in Hempstead.

Russia swept the first three weight classes at the New York AC Freestyle International on Sunday: Petr Sivtcev at 55 kg/121 lbs., Rasul Murtazaliev at 60 kg/132 lbs. and Magomedmurad Gadzhiev at 66 kg/145.5 lbs. Gadzhiev was named Outstanding Wrestler.

Gadzhiev also won the 2010 Ivan Yarygin Memorial Grand Prix, one of the world's most respected tournaments, as well as capturing a silver medal at the 2010 European Championships.

Competing at 84 kg/185 lbs. is Koloy Kortoev, a 2009 Junior World champion and two-time European Junior champion. Kirill Gotovtsev, who placed third in the Ivan Yarygin Memorial Grand Prix the last two years, will wrestle at 120 kg/264.5 lbs. Rounding out the Russian delegation are Rasul Mashezov at 55 kg/121 lbs and Marat Ibragimov at 96 kg/211.5 lbs.

Filling in at 74 kg/163 lbs. on the Russian team is Muzaffar Abdurakhmanov, a native of Uzbekistan who placed third in the 2006 NCAA Championships for American University and was a two-time Junior College national champion for Colby CC. Abdurakhmanov is currently an assistant coach at Harvard.

USA Wrestling National Freestyle Coach Zeke Jones has also finalized his talented U.S. lineup.

Two past U.S. World Team members will be on the team, 2009 U.S. World Team member Jake Varner (State College, Pa./Nittany Lion WC) and 2007 U.S. World Team member Tommy Rowlands (Columbus, Ohio/Sunkist Kids) at 120 kg/264.5 lbs. Varner currently holds a No. 2 ranking on Freestyle Team USA.

Another U.S. national team members in the lineup is No. 2 Keith Gavin (Pittsburgh, Pa./Lehigh Valley AC) at 84 kg/185 lbs.

Matt Valenti (Philadelphia, Pa./Lehigh Valley AC) is a late addition for the U.S. team at 60 kg/132 lbs.

Rounding out the U.S. lineup are Dan Dennis (Iowa City, Iowa/Hawkeye WC) at 55 kg/121 lbs., Joe Johnston (Columbia, Mo./Missouri) at 66 kg/145.5 lbs. and Nick Marable (Columbia, Mo./Missouri) at 74 kg/163 lbs.

Four U.S. team members are past NCAA champions. Two-time NCAA champions were Varner at Iowa State, Rowlands at Ohio State and Valenti at Penn. Gavin won a NCAA title for Pitt.

In addition to the USA vs. Russia dual meet, there will be two featured Greco-Roman bouts. At 84 kg/185 lbs., 2008 Olympic gold medalist Andrea Minguzzi of Italy will battle 2010 U.S. Open champion Cheney Haight (Boise, Idaho/New York AC). At 96 kg/211.5 lbs., 2010 University World silver medalist Diagoro Timoncini of Italy will battle veteran U.S. wrestler John Lorenz (Colorado Springs, Colo./U.S. Army).

Along with the international dual, the Journeymen/ASICS Northeast Duals will be held Saturday, Nov. 27, featuring top college programs Lehigh, Missouri, American, Virginia, Maryland, Pittsburgh, Binghamton and Rutgers. Also making an appearance is MMA star and former Michigan State wrestler Rashad Evans.

Tickets will cost $20 for general admission and will be available at the door.

For information on the Nov. 27 USA vs. Russia dual meet, contact Frank Popolizio at Frank@journeymenwrestling.com or visit www.journeymenwrestling.com

TheMat.com will be in Troy to post updates from the dual meet.

Wrestlers of the Week: EIWA, EWL, Northern Sun announce weekly winners

Ryan Tomei named EWL Wrestler of the Week

By Jonathan Brennan

Pittsburgh Sports Information

Pitt heavyweight Ryan Tomei was named EWL Wrestler of the Week, the league office announced Sunday night.

Tomei, a redshirt junior from Irwin, Pa., went 3-0 at the Journeyman Northeast Duals this past Saturday, leading the Panthers to victories over Penn (16-15) and No. 23 Virginia (21-15). In both matches, Tomei was the deciding factor.

“Ryan had an outstanding performance this past weekend,” Pitt Head Coach Rande Stottlemeyer said. “He came up big for us when we needed him to. He’s often times put in a tough situation with a match on the line, and Ryan has willed us to victory on numerous occasions.”

In its matchup against Penn, Pitt trailed 15-13 with the heavyweight division the only bout remaining. Tomei was able record an 8-2 decision over Kyle Cowan, giving the Panthers three points and clinching the match, 16-15.

Against Virginia, Tomei faced off against John Danilkowicz with the score tied at 15-15. Tomei showed his strength by pinning the Cavaliers heavyweight in just over two minutes into the bout. With the fall, the Panthers won by a final score of 21-15.

In his final bout of the day, Tomei squared off against Ryan Flores of American University. Flores entered the match ranked as the third best heavyweight in the country by InterMat Wrestling, while Tomei ranked ninth.

Tomei used a reversal, a takedown and a two-point near fall to defeat Flores with a 6-4 decision.

“Ryan fought extremely hard against Flores in a battle of two of the best heavyweights in college wrestling,” Stottlemeyer added. “He’s faced some tough competition but we know that Ryan is capable of winning against any heavyweight in the country.”

With the three victories, Tomei improves to 10-1 on the season including a title at the Clarion Open. His lone loss came against No. 1 ranked Zach Rey of Lehigh in an extremely tight 3-2 OT decision.
